Dear Professor Horng

21st Century Award for Achievement

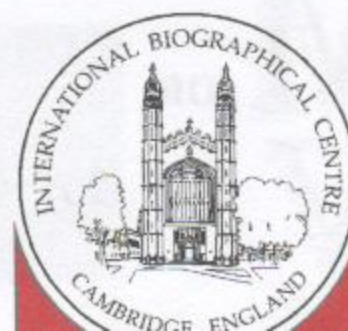

I am very pleased to announce Professor Horng that having studied your biographical information, the editorial review board has approved the granting of the IBC's 21st Century Award for Achievement in recognition of your outstanding contribution. Congratulations, your name will join an impressive collective.

Your nomination for this award comes as a result of more than forty years of biographical profiling by the International Biographical Centre and continues our tradition of recognising individual excellence wherever it is found. Having featured over 1 million biographies in some 200 editions of 27 Who's Who titles, the International Biographical Centre's publications are recognised as essential reference sources around the globe and you are right to feel proud of being in the top percentile of such illustrious company. We believe that each year certain individuals from the many that we review deserve further recognition for their work and as such I am very pleased to record your nomination.

I have enclosed details of this unique award for your information Professor Horng and congratulate you on this honour and I look forward to receiving your completed acceptance form.

Sincerely,

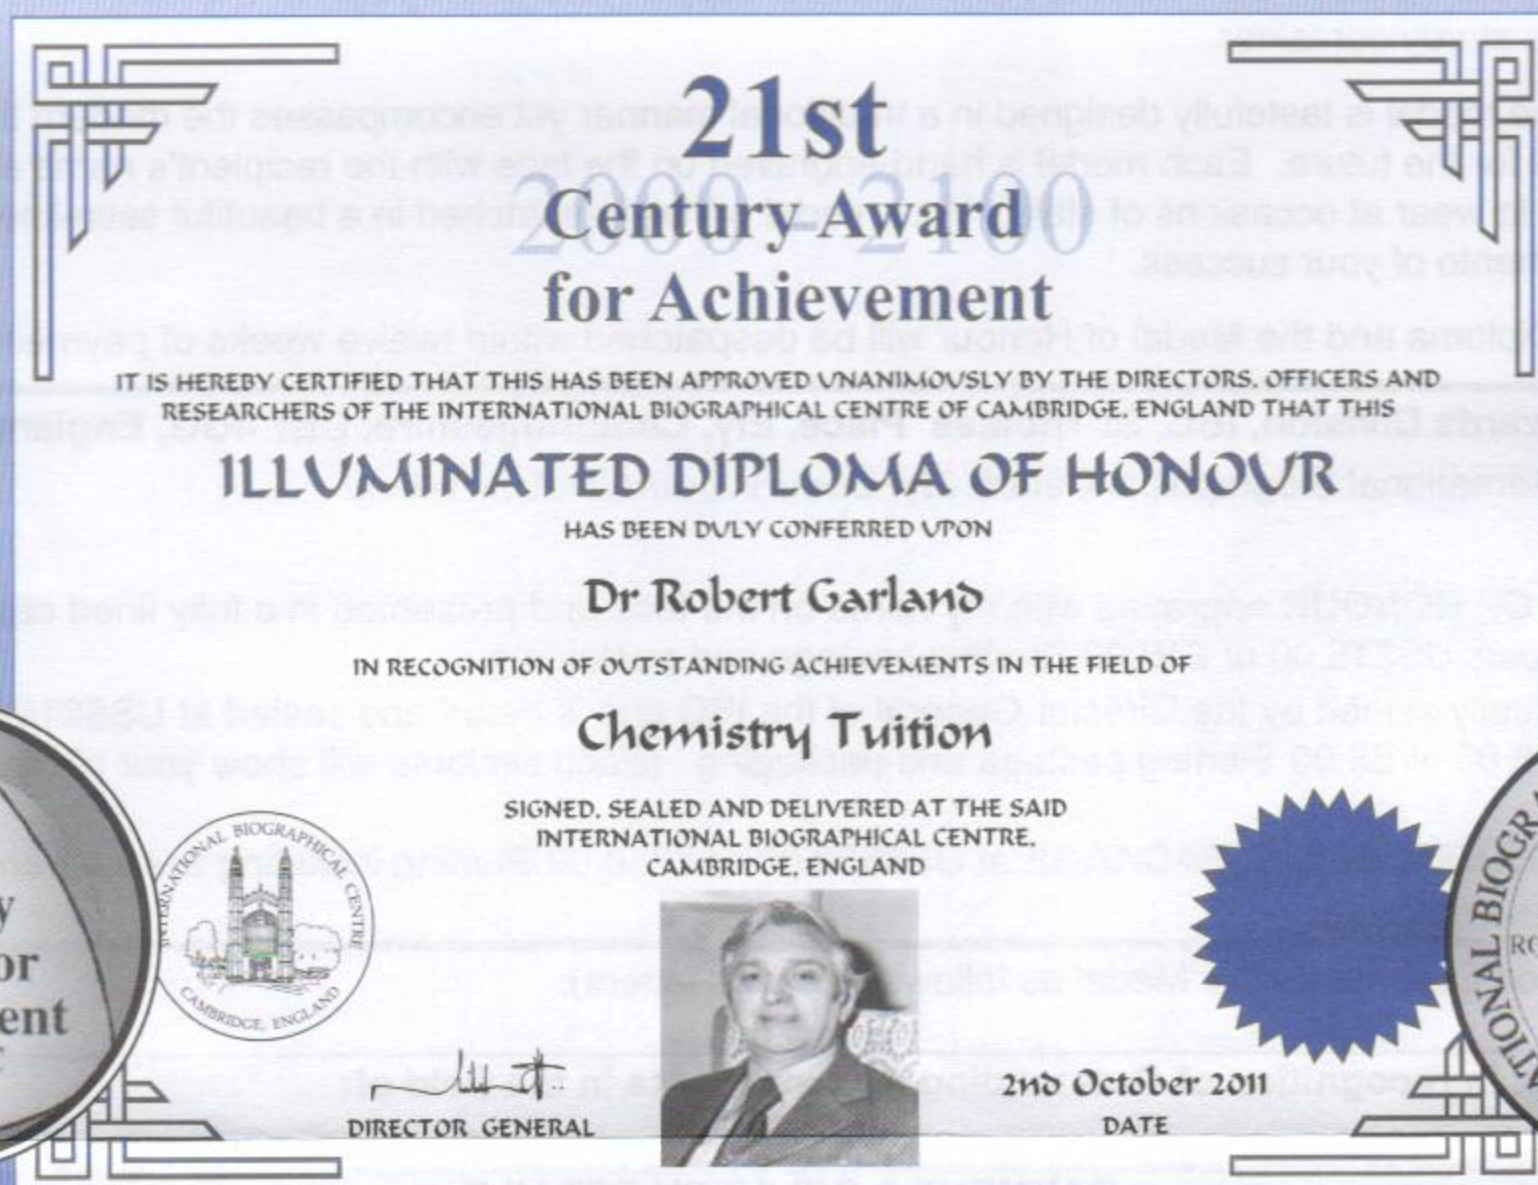

Nicholas S. Law
Director General
