2012 MAN OF THE YEAR

For Professional Excellence

Honoring those who consistently strive for professional and intellectual excellence.

Dear Assoc. Prof. Horng:

I am delighted to announce your nomination for the American Biographical Institute's prestigious honor, 2012 MAN OF THE YEAR for Professional Excellence. Our annual nominations are presented to those men whose professional achievements have shown initiative and vision in an effort to improve the human condition.

The Institute's International Board of Research selected you after a careful global evaluation of individuals who have excelled in their professions. Celebrating 45 years of collecting and publishing the credentials of outstanding men and women from about the world, we consider those in our biographical archives and those introduced to us through correspondence with prominent businesses, universities and organizations around the world. Our objective is to honor professional dedication and excellence and we are proud of each nomination.

Assoc. Prof. Horng, the enclosed leaflet pictures the plaque crafted to commemorate this occasion. It is distinguished in appearance with a cherrywood finish and ebony plate inscribed with gold lettering. It signifies your selection as a 2012 MAN OF THE YEAR and will no doubt hold a place of honor in your office or home. You may choose a personal citation you feel best reflects your professional accomplishments.

You should be very proud to be among this year's nominees and we sincerely hope you will accept this honor as 2012 MAN OF THE YEAR. You have earned this honor and I congratulate you on your selection. The enclosed leaflet explains the acceptance process. Your reply is requested by December 2, 2012, or as close to this date as possible so that we may finalize your acceptance of this nomination. It will be my distinct privilege to recognize your effectiveness within your profession and I wish you continued dedication and success.

Sincerely,

C. A. Mitchell
