Dear Professor Horng

YOUR NOMINATION AS INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR

The International Biographical Centre of Cambridge, England is delighted to confirm your nomination as an International Educator of the Year for 2011, Professor Horng. This prestigious award will be made available to only a few illustrious individuals whose achievements and leadership stand out in the International Teaching Community as decreed by the Research and Advisory Board sitting at the International Biographical Centre in Cambridge, England and this year I have had the pleasure of chairing the selection committee. Over the course of the publication of our leading biographical directories, tens of thousands of biographies have been reviewed and from these only a select few have been chosen for this impressive new accolade. Congratulations on being selected.

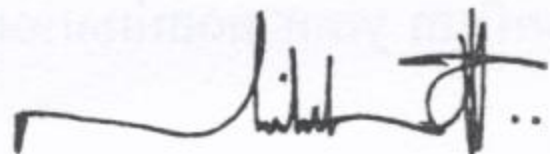

Over...

The International Biographical Centre prides itself on being one of the leading biographical reference book publishers in the world with more than 20 Who's Who titles in 132 separate editions. Among these titles, some of which have been established for nearly 50 years, are Dictionary of International Biography, Outstanding Scientists of the 21st Century, International Register of Profiles and more recently The Cambridge Blue Book.

This award - as International Educator of the Year - is described on the accompanying notice of nomination. You will see that recipients are eligible to display an appealing Commemorative Pictorial Testimonial, a gold-gilt Medal of Excellence or an authoritative Official Sash of Office so that you may, with justifiable pride, proclaim your nomination as International Educator of the Year. I trust you will share my excitement Professor Horng, at the news of this honour which is justifiably deserved. If you decide to commemorate this award we will write to you for further details.

Again, many congratulations!

Sincerely,

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR 2011

International Biographical Centre
Cambridge, England

The International Biographical Centre of Cambridge, England publishes biographical reference directories of international acclaim. From the many completed Biographical Questionnaires the Research and Advisory Board has selected you as one of a very limited number of individuals to receive the important international accolade:

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR 2011

As International Educator of the Year you are able to apply for one or more of the following hand-crafted and prestigious Awards to commemorate your nomination. Each Award, whether it be the Sash of Office, the Medal of Excellence or the Pictorial Testimonial, will say something unique about the recipient that is bound to raise your status significantly in the international community.

THE OFFICIAL SASH OF OFFICE

This silken sash, with golden tassels, has been commissioned by the IBC and is hand-finished by Toye, Kenning and Spencer, makers of Official Regalia worldwide. It is woven in a luxurious Blue and has the Legend of the IBC along with the words INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR embroidered in a golden thread. The recipient's name will be added to the Sash below the Legend.

THE OFFICIAL MEDAL OF EXCELLENCE

Struck in gold gilt, the Medal of Excellence shows on one side the emblem of INTERNATIONAL BIOGRAPHICAL CENTRE and on the reverse is personalised with the recipient's name, and the year in which the award was made.

COMMEMORATIVE TESTIMONIAL

The International Educator of the Year Testimonial is printed in three fine colours and prominently shows the name of the individual who has been honoured with the award as well as a photograph of the recipient. A prominent citation is inscribed and the testimonial is signed personally by the Editor in Chief of the International Biographical Centre before being mounted and laminated onto a quality wooden plaque for instant wall hanging and everlasting preservation. It is then despatched in secure packaging.

Your efforts have resulted in your selection by our Research and Advisory Board and then ratification by the International Biographical Centre Awards Committee as International Educator of the Year. You rightfully deserve this recognition.
